Citizen Participation / Public Comment.

1. State Representative Daniella Garcia, 90th District. Rep. Garcia was recently appointed to the Appropriations Committee. She also serves on the Education, Commerce and Trade, Health Policy and Regulatory Reform committees. Ms. Garcia reported Governor Synder recommended a modest 1% growth to the state budget. He also requested 165 million for Flint and 1.25 billion for Detroit Public Schools.
2. Tom Brown representing the Trillium Lake Association. Mr. Brown requested assistance from the township to repair a retaining wall. The concrete wall, located along 96th Ave., is beginning to bulge. Mr. Brown asked the board if they could consolidate a drain district to include Trillium Lakes in order to spread the repair costs to a larger group of homeowners. The board took no action.
3. Also in attendance: Don Snide of 8316 South Maple Ct. and Terry Clay of 646 80th Ave.
